

Percussion Team

About

We have a great mix of Orchestral Percussionists and Drum Kit teachers at Berkshire Music Trust. All of the team are working musicians and play with lots of professional and amateur groups around Berkshire.

We teach complete beginners all the way up to those preparing for Conservatoire and Contemporary establishments. Teaching can be individuals, small groups or even percussion to whole classes. We promote all genres of music and the teachers do a mix of ABRSM, Trinity and Rock School Exams. We run percussion ensembles and contemporary groups across the county and there are opportunities to get involved with these as well as performances that our teachers give in schools and at larger scale events like our Junior Music Festivals.

We are very proud of the venues and percussion equipment we have available for the students to use as there are full sets of orchestral percussion and multiple drum kits at our music centres. Our teachers are able to take advantage of these rooms to practise when they are not teaching. We have a great team who all get on well together and meet socially too. We look forward to welcoming some new members.

Come and experience music education the Berkshire Music way!
